Adele Gall Graduates from Financial Managers School

Zanesville, Ohio – Adele Gall, Vice President/Accounting Officer at The Community Bank, recently graduated from the Financial Managers School, presented by the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the Financial Managers Society. This program provided an opportunity for students to learn from respected industry experts about today's key issues in capital planning, asset/liability management, research in banking, economics and leadership. “We commend Adele for taking the time out of her busy schedule to pursue graduate-level studies that raise the bar for banking and ensure a highly competitive marketplace for financial services. We are proud of Adele’s accomplishment,” said Michael R. Steen, President and CEO.

Adele is a lifelong resident of the Perry County area and her close ties to the community fit ideally with The Community Bank’s philosophy. She began her banking career after graduating in 1999 with Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Ohio University. Adele continued her education by obtaining a Master’s of Business Administration from the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve University with a major in Banking and Finance in 2002.
