Zanesville, Ohio – The Community Bank is excited to announce our expansion with our newest full service Banking Offices in Cambridge. The Community Bank based in Zanesville, Ohio has entered into a purchase agreement for the two Cambridge Offices of Community Savings of Caldwell, Ohio.

The existing Community Savings Offices located at 61246 Southgate Parkway and 902 Wheeling Avenue in Cambridge will become fully operational Offices, with regular banking hours under The Community Bank brand, subject to regulatory approval.

The Community Bank, through the acquisition, will assume all deposit accounts of these two Cambridge Offices including individual checking, money market savings, and Certificates of Deposit. All loans will remain with Community Savings.

During the transition, customers of Community Savings will continue to have access to their accounts as usual and will continue to be insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, to the extent provided by law.

"We welcome the customers and employees to The Community Bank family," stated Michael R. Steen, President and CEO. "We're anxious to share our 'Spirit of Community' with them, as well as our commitment to excellence in products and service. Since we currently provide financial services to customers who live or do business in the Cambridge area, establishing a physical presence here will allow us to better service the Cambridge area as a true hometown bank."
