For Immediate Release

The Community Bank Surpasses $400 Million in Total Assets

Zanesville, Ohio – The Community Bank is pleased to announce a major milestone in its growth. The Community Bank surpassed $400 million in assets for the first time in August 2015. This puts The Community Bank near the top quarter of Ohio banks by asset size and at a 400% increase in assets over the past 15 years.

Michael R. Steen, President and CEO of The Community Bank stated, “We continue to outpace our most aggressive projections. The Bank’s sustained financial performance is a testament to our steadfast commitment to providing superior customer service combined with the best banking solutions to meet the needs of each customer. We will continue strengthening our communities by providing the highest possible standards in community banking for flexibility, responsiveness, and personalized customer service. Many thanks to our customers for your business, support, and promotion, without it the Bank’s tremendous growth as a company would not be possible.”
