Allison Weeks Promoted at The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – “Allison Weeks has been promoted to Vice President/North Zanesville Office Manager/Business Banker of The Community Bank. Immediately joining The Community Bank in 2011, Allison became a significant partner for our small business community! She prides herself on building strong relationships with customers, providing the best guidance for lending and deposit needs and she has been successful in overseeing the development of several new business relationships for the Bank. Allison’s leadership and demonstrated passion will strengthen our Business Banking Team and the small businesses in our community start up, expand and retool. Small business is the backbone of our community,” said Michael R. Steen, President and CEO.

Allison began her banking career in 1993 as a Finance Company Branch Manager. She has also held positions as a Mortgage Broker, Real Estate Sales Agent, and Personal Banker throughout her career. Allison is a resident of Zanesville and has been working around the Zanesville area since 1993. Allison graduated with her Associate’s Degree in Arts and Science from The Ohio State University.

Allison's passion to serve and give back is an ideal fit with The Community Bank's mission to help build prosperous communities. Allison is a high profile community advocate who is actively involved by serving her third term as an Affiliate Director of Guernsey-Muskingum Valley Association of Realtors, member and past vice president of Zanesville Soroptimist Club, Lah-Di-Dahs, member and past secretary of Muskingum County Senior Task Force and volunteers with Muskingum County Senior Citizens. Allison is a current member of the Zanesville Country Club and has taught yoga, Pilates, and strength training classes at several local fitness facilities around Zanesville.
