Greg Bell is Promoted at The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – “Greg Bell has distinguished himself as a talented leader within our Company and has been promoted to North Zanesville Office Manager of The Community Bank. Greg has been an outstanding, committed community banker of our Banking Office management team for over 10 years. His experience in retail banking and strong roots in our community make Greg the perfect manager to lead our North Zanesville Banking Office in growth and excellent customer service. We are very fortunate to have Greg and are confident in his abilities to lead our North Zanesville Office successfully,” said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

Greg began his banking career with The Community Bank in 2008. Since then, Greg has celebrated many career advancements including positions held as a Mortgage Loan Originator, Loan Officer, New Accounts Representative, and Assistant Office Manager.

Greg is a resident of Muskingum County and his involvement in the community is an excellent example of how The Community Bank is committed to the communities in which we do business. Greg is actively involved in various community outreach activities including volunteering for the National Wild Turkey Foundation, coordinating The Community Bank’s Golf

League at EagleSticks, volunteering for the Carr Center's Special Rider program along with participating in numerous charity and organizational golf outings throughout the year. Greg also has been a Loan Executive with United Way of Muskingum, Perry and Morgan Counties, a member of Zanesville Host Lions Club, and a volunteer for Big Brothers, Big Sisters' Bowl For Kids Sake.
