Adele Gall is promoted at The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – “Adele Gall has been promoted to Vice President/Financial Officer of The Community Bank. Our Company is blessed with a tremendous depth of talent allowing us to promote from within and capitalize on the many strengths of our team. It is a pleasure to recognize and reward Adele for her excellent work! She has been a valuable leader of our management team for the past 12 years. Given Adele’s well-established expertise, insights in finance and her depth of experience makes her an outstanding choice for her new role as Financial Officer. We look forward to Adele moving our Company forward while we remain focused on the financial fundamentals that have made us successful through the years,” said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

Adele is a lifelong resident of the Perry County area and her close ties to the community fit ideally with The Community Bank’s philosophy. She volunteers with Big Brothers Big Sister’s Lunch Buddy program and is involved with her children’s sports and academic activities. Adele began her banking career after graduating in 1999 with Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Ohio University. Adele continued her education by obtaining a Master’s of Business Administration from the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve University with a major in Banking and Finance in 2002. She also recently graduated from Financial Managers School, presented by the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the Financial Managers Society.
