“Home Town” Banking Champion
Michael Steen Retires From The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – Terry Goss, Chairman of the Board of CommunityBanc, Inc., has announced the retirement of Michael R. Steen, Vice Chairman/President and CEO. In a joint statement, Terry Goss announced the appointment of Eric S. Holsky, Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer as President and CEO of The Community Bank. Michael will continue to serve on the CommunityBanc, Inc. Board of Directors.

The Community Bank has experienced tremendous growth and success under Mr. Steen’s leadership. Michael who has been at the helm for over 15 years has seen The Community Bank’s total assets grow to over $400 million. He cultivated numerous positive relationships with shareholders, customers and our communities during his tenure at The Community Bank. Michael has spent his entire career in the banking industry and has been a strong, outspoken advocate for small business and the financial health of the local community. A few of his many significant achievements are multiple successful capital campaigns, the opening of seven Banking Offices, a Lending Center, the establishment of Community Financial Advisors and The Community Loan Company, the opening of two additional Loan Company Offices, and, most importantly, positioning the Bank for growth by building a strong team with extraordinary leaders. We are most grateful and are indebted for his leadership, numerous contributions, passion, and banking knowledge. We look forward to Michael's continued guidance and friendship.

In his retirement, Steen plans to continue his passion for community involvement for which he has become highly visible over the years.
