The Community Bank's
Free Community Shred Day @ Waste Away Systems in Heath

Newark, Ohio – The Community Bank is teaming up with Waste Away Systems and Hebron Scrap Metal Recycling to host a Free Community Shred Day on Saturday, June 15th. Waste Away Systems is offering a special discounted trash drop-off rate, Hebron Scrap Metal Recycling is offering free electronics (e-waste) recycling, and The Community Bank will be onsite to provide secure document destruction.

"We take our role as a community bank seriously and are proud to host this free event for community members to be proactive in keeping their own information secure. Our Community Bank team encourages you to clear out your storage space and head on over to see us. We will take care of the rest. Simply pull through the Waste Away Systems' parking lot and our Community Bank team will unload your documents for proper disposing allowing you to be on your way within a matter of minutes. We make it easy and this service is free of charge for all," said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

The Community Bank's Free Community Shred Day will be Saturday, June 15th from 9am to 12noon at Waste Away Systems located at 995 Keller Drive in Heath.

Hebron Scrap Metal Recycling are able to accept e-waste only. They will not accept any type of monitors or televisions. Community members are responsible for the removal of sensitive data from hard drives and other storage media before recycling. There is no limit on how much e-waste recycling community members bring. Hebron Scrap Metal Recycling will accept personal computers, laptops, servers, routers, modems/switches, telephones, cell phones, printers, fax machines, copiers, speakers, stereos/VCRs/radios, remotes, keyboards, mice, all wire & cords, rechargeable batteries, docking stations, LCD screens (from computers), cable/satellite boxes, and DVRs.

Identity theft and fraud are a rational fear for individuals and businesses. By simply shredding old tax records, insurance records, bank statements, cancelled checks, health records, financial documents, legal documents, and all other sensitive documents you can help stop identity thieves in their tracks. We encourage community members to bring up to 5 boxes (approximately 100 pounds) of your unwanted paperwork to be destroyed safely and securely free of charge. Staples, rubber bands, folders and paper clips do not need to be removed before shredding. Allshred Services will be onsite to provide secure document destruction.
