For Immediate Release

Chantel Tracey is promoted at The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – “Chantel Tracey has been promoted to Training Manager of The Community Bank and is working from our Downtown Zanesville Office. The Bank continues to succeed and grow because we have the best people. I am confident Chantel will continue to drive our strategy of supporting our leaders with excellent training helping them achieve career and personal development milestones,” said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

Chantel began her banking career in 2015. For the past 3 years, she has been a huge asset in our Training Department. Chantel graduated with her Bachelor’s Degree from Ohio University plus she has brought many years of past training experience to the bank.

Chantel is actively involved in our local community participating in events such as the Lace Up For Kids, Tools For School, Big Brothers Big Sisters’ Lunch Buddy program, and many other events. She serves as Vice Chair for United Way of Muskingum, Perry and Morgan Counties as well as leads The Community Bank’s internal United Way fundraising campaign.
