Adele Gall is promoted at The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – “Adele Gall has been promoted to Senior Vice President/Chief Financial Officer of The Community Bank. We’re very pleased to make this announcement of Adele leading our Company in this key role. She has been a valuable leader of our management team for the past 15 years. Adele’s solid financial leadership, strategic focus, and proven track record to drive strong financial performance has played an integral role to the continued growth and profitability of The Community Bank. Please join me in congratulating Adele on this well-deserved promotion,” said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

Adele is a lifelong resident of the Perry County area and her close ties to the community fit ideally with The Community Bank’s philosophy. She volunteers and supports many local charitable organizations and is involved with her children’s sports and academic activities. Adele began her banking career after graduating in 1999 with Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from Ohio University. Adele continued her education by obtaining a Master’s of Business Administration from the Weatherhead School of Management at Case Western Reserve University with a major in Banking and Finance in 2002. She also recently graduated from Financial Managers School, presented by the Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the Financial Managers Society.
