For Immediate Release

Lisa Karling is promoted at The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – “Lisa Karling has been promoted to Assistant Vice President/Senior Mortgage Loan Specialist of The Community Bank. Lisa offers the highest level of knowledge and expertise in residential real estate lending. Her commitment to representing the Bank in our community along with her excellent customer service coupled with her friendly passion of guiding borrowers through their home financing journey has earned her this well-deserved promotion,” said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

Lisa began her career in banking in 2009 and expanded her banking knowledge quickly by holding positions such as Personal Banker, Assistant Office Manager, and Loan Officer/New Accounts Representative. Lisa graduated with her Bachelor’s Degree from Ohio University in Specialized Studies with a specialization in Business Communications in 2009. Lisa is a resident of Zanesville and has been working around the Zanesville area since 2005.

Lisa is actively involved in our local community by currently serving as President of Muskingum County Community Foundation Council and is a member of the 100 Women Who Care of Muskingum County. Lisa also volunteers at the Carr Center’s Cake Auction and the Zanesville-Muskingum County Chamber’s Festival of Trees.
