Jordan West is promoted at The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – “Jordan West has been promoted to Deposit Operations Manager of The Community Bank. Our Company is blessed with a tremendous depth of talent allowing us to promote from within and capitalize on the many strengths of our team. It is a pleasure to recognize and reward Jordan for his excellent work. Jordan has been a valuable employee since 2011 and has made a great impact during his tenure at TCB. In this position, he will be responsible for managing the Bank’s Deposit Operations team as well as the Bank’s deposit policies and procedures. We are very fortunate to have Jordan and are confident in his abilities to lead our Deposit Operations Department successfully,” said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

Jordan began his banking career in March of 2011 as a part time CSR at the East Zanesville Banking Office. He has celebrated many career promotions including a traveling Flex CSR, working in the Loan Operations Department for 3 years, then he was promoted to the Deposit Operations Department as a Deposit Operations Specialist III, and now has been promoted to the Deposit Operations Manager. Jordan is a lifelong resident of Muskingum County and he enjoys volunteering in the community.
