For Immediate Release

Neana Butler Joins Community Financial Advisors' team at The Community Bank

"We are pleased to welcome Neana Butler back to our Community Financial Advisors' team, a division of The Community Bank, as Client Services Coordinator. Neana brings numerous years of trust and wealth management experience to this role. She will exceed our client's expectations and play a key part in supporting administrative functions," said Ron Davis, Senior Vice President/Senior Financial Officer.

Prior to joining The Community Bank, Neana served as Senior Account Relationship Associate where she acted as the department operations coordinator, was responsible for managing daily account operations, and was chosen to implement a system conversion to a new trust accounting system. Neana joined The Community Bank in 2016 and has served mostly as a CSR II at the East Office. She enjoys working with clients and providing excellent customer service.

Neana is a lifelong resident of Muskingum County. She enjoys volunteering in the community. This year she has been active in supporting the Adopt A Child, United Way for Muskingum,

Perry and Morgan Counties, Big Brothers Big Sisters' Bowl for Kids Sake, Muskingum County Center for Seniors food distribution and Power of the Purse.
