Matt Allred is Promoted and Kaitlyn Novaria Joins The Community Bank

"We're pleased to recognize Matt Allred for his hard work and congratulate him on his recent promotion to Assistant Vice President/New Concord Office Manager. We are also very pleased to announce that Kaitlyn Novaria has joined our team as North Zanesville Office Manager of The Community Bank," said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

Matt Allred, Assistant Vice President/New Concord Office Manager, began his banking career in 2008 and has celebrated many career advancements including positions held as a Teller, Teller Supervisor, Banker, and Assistant Office Manager. He is a resident of New Concord and actively volunteers for United Way of Muskingum, Perry and Morgan Counties as well as many other local charitable organizations.

Kaitlyn Novaria, North Zanesville Office Manager, graduated from Ohio University Zanesville in 2020 with a bachelor's in science and applied management with a minor in Communications. She began her career in the banking industry in 2017 as a teller, and quickly became a branch manager shortly after.

Kaitlyn is active in our community by being the current president of the Muskingum Valley Human Resources Management Association, President of the Zanesville South Business Association, a member of Muskingum County Emerging Leaders, Bowl for Kids Sake, and the Carr Center Cake Auction. Kaitlyn currently lives in Muskingum County with her husband & two dogs.
