The Community Bank Announces Promotions

"Erika Pollard, Jenny Snode and Rachel Holdsworth have all distinguished themselves as talented leaders within our Company. We're pleased to recognize these dedicated employees for their hard work and congratulate them on their recent promotions at The Community Bank," said Eric S. Holsky, President and CEO.

Erika Pollard, Assistant Vice President/West Market Mortgage Officer, graduated with her bachelor's degree from Mount Vernon Nazarene University. She began her banking career in 2010 and has celebrated many career advancements. Erika is a resident of Heath and is actively involved in various community outreach activities including giving back to the Licking County Humane Society, serving as a Board Member for Camp O'Bannon and as a member of the Newark Kiwanis Club.

Jenny Snode, Assistant Vice President/Financial Services/Deposit Product Development Officer, graduated from Ohio University and then began her banking career in 1993. Jenny has celebrated many career advancements during her banking career including positions held as Teller, Savings Counselor, Assistant Saving Manager, Deposit Operations Clerk, Personal Banker, Office Manager as well as Cash Management Officer. Jenny is a lifelong resident of the Muskingum County area and is actively involved in various community outreach activities including volunteering at her church and her daughter's school, as well as Lace Up For Kids and the Muskingum County Center For Seniors.

Rachel Holdsworth, Assistant Vice President/Newark Office Manager, started with a career in retail and transitioned into banking in 2017. Rachel is a resident of Newark and is actively involved in her son's school and academic activities.
