Tiffany Tilton is promoted at The Community Bank

Zanesville, Ohio – “Tiffany Tilton has been promoted to Vice President/Office Administrator of The Community Bank and is working from our Downtown Zanesville Office. We are very excited not only for this career advancement opportunity for Tiffany, but for the experience and support she will bring to our banking offices. Tiffany’s background in retail banking coupled with her experience in banking operations sets us up for even greater success,” said Michael R. Steen, President and CEO.

Tiffany is a local resident and has been working around the Zanesville area since the 1990’s. She began her banking career in 1997 as a Service Associate. Throughout her banking career Tiffany has held positions as a Client Relationship Specialist, a Client Service Specialist and an Office Supervisor.

Tiffany is actively involved in our local community attending several community events, volunteering at Light the Night and shopping for an angel from the local Angel Tree during the holiday season. Tiffany previously served as the Loan Officer of the United Way of Muskingum, Perry, and Morgan Counties and the Treasurer of the Zanesville South Business Association.
