

Friday, September 16, 2011

The Community Bank – Immediate News Release

Contact: Jessica Bowers, Marketing Coordinator

740-454-1600

jbowers@thecombank.com

Zanesville, Ohio: Community Financial Advisors (CFA), a division of The Community Bank, is pleased to announce that Christopher Clewell has recently been accredited as a Certified Financial Planner (CFP). The CFP designation is the culmination of two years of advanced financial strategies coursework, followed by a comprehensive two-day examination. Chris becomes the third CFA officer to hold the CFP designation. The Community Financial Advisors is now the only investment advisory firm in East-Central Ohio with three-or-more Certified Financial Planners.

Chris has over 9 years of investment management and financial services experience. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from The Ohio State University. Prior to joining Community Financial Advisors in 2006, his experience includes retail banking, insurance services, and investment management in the banking and insurance industries. Chris resides in Zanesville and is an active member of The Rotary Club of Zanesville. He also serves as a United Way Loaned Executive.