Chris Olney Graduates from Graduate School of Banking

Zanesville, Ohio – Chris Olney, Senior Vice President/Chief Credit Officer, at The Community Bank recently graduated from Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. The three-year graduate level program provides bankers with an opportunity for advanced study and research in banking, economics and leadership while focusing on the management of strategic issues faced by banking executives. “I am extremely proud and honored to have Chris as a part of our Community Bank family. His hard work and dedication are indicative of his commitment to The Community Bank and offering the best service and knowledge to our customers. Chris has made a tremendous impact in our company and his completion of this intensive program will enhance his professional career and benefit our customers,” said Michael R. Steen, President and CEO.

Chris began his banking career in 1987 as a Consumer Credit Evaluator. Throughout his career Chris has held positions as a Credit Research Specialist, Senior Credit Analyst, Commercial Lender, and Community Banker. Chris is a resident of Zanesville and has been working in the Zanesville area for many years. Chris graduated with his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a focus in Finance from The Ohio State University.

Chris is actively involved in our local community serving as Treasurer, Board of Director, and a member of the Finance Committee of the Muskingum Family Y. Chris is also a member of the OMEGA Loan Review Committee, the City of Zanesville RLF Loan Review Committee, Sertoma, and served as Co-Chair of the Business Division of the United Way of Muskingum, Perry, and Morgan Counties.
